

Lotus Domino, Developing Applications: Intermediate Skills – 3 days

Lotus. software

Course Objectives

The course aims to extend existing development knowledge to enhance applications with more advanced design elements and explain how to combine multiple data sources.

Prerequisites

This course will benefit domino developers who wish to extend their skills to develop more complex applications consisting of multiple data sources and using more advanced development techniques.

Exercises

This course is instructor led, involving the utilisation of examples and exercises in a workshop environment.

- Working with Outlines
- Building Framesets
- Advanced View Design
- Advanced Formula Techniques
- Advanced Data Access Mechanisms
- Routing Documents and Notifying Users
- Using Profile Documents
- Securing a Domino 6 Application
- Using the Design Synopsis
- Using 3rd Party Tools and WebDAV