

Lotus Domino, Developing Applications: Foundation Skills – 4 days

Lotus. software

Course Objectives

This course aims to introduce new Domino developers to the fundamentals of Domino design. Delegates are given a clear overview of good design techniques with plenty of hands on practice.

Prerequisites

This course will benefit Application developers new the IBM Lotus Domino environment.

Exercises

This course is instructor led, involving the utilisation of examples and exercises in a workshop environment.

- Domino Designer 6 application and design environment
- Creating databases
- Creating and designing forms
- Working with fields
- Creating and enhancing views
- Creating pages
- Enhancing forms and pages with layers
- Shared resources
- Working with Formula Language
- Creating agents to modify data in documents
- Creating view and form actions
- Working with security
- Creating and using design templates
- Determining replication requirements
- Grant and Revoke Privileges on Access Objects to Users and Groups