

Career Development Planning - 1 day

Objectives:

This course is designed to help focus your career aspirations. It will provide you with the tools you need to help plan out a career path either in your existing field or if you are looking for a change in direction. This course is essential for anyone who wants to turn those long term ideals into a real goal oriented plan.

Prerequisites:

There are no Prerequisites for this course.

Exercises

This course is instructor led, Involving the utilisation of examples and exercises in a workshop environment.

Career aspirations

- Career preferences
- Career-related skills
- Career exploration

Career strategies

- Developing career goals
- Creating career strategies

Career excellence

- Working to excel
- Marketing yourself
- Staying competitive

Professional networking

- Networking to advance your career
- Seeking career guidance
- Developing a career network